

„Separated Spaces“
Spatial segregation – an unacknowledged problem

International conference in Tallinn, November 14, 2019, organized by Estonian Association of Architects

Venue: Kumu <https://kumu.ekm.ee/en/kumu-auditorium/kumu-auditorium/>

Moderator: Mr Neeme Raud <http://neemeraud.ee/>

Program

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 11:00-11:05 | Ms Katrin Koov , President of the Estonian Association of Architects |
| 11:05-11:25 | Mr Rait Kuuse , Deputy Secretary General on Social Policy |
| 11:25- 12:05 | Mr Tiit Tammaru , Professor of Urban and Population Geography, University of Tartu
Socio-Economic segregation in European capital cities. East meets West. |
| 12:05-12:45 | Ms Montserrat Pareja Eastaway , Associate Professor at University of Barcelona
Contested spaces: the spatial fragmentation of conflicts in Barcelona |
| 12:45-13:30 | Lunch |
| 13:30-14:10 | Mr Paul Watt , Professor of Urban Studies at Birkbeck, University of London
Social Housing Regeneration, Place and Inequality in London |
| 14:10-14:50 | Ms Lara Anne Hale , Postdoctoral researcher in Smart Buildings & Cities, Department of Management, Society and Communications, Copenhagen Business School
Technology as spatial segregation |
| 14:50-15:10 | Coffee break |
| 15:10-16:00 | Mr Maxime Enrico , Lead Architect, LAN (Local Architecture Network), Paris
Forms in motion |
| 16:00-16:40 | Mr John L. Brown , Dean and Professor, School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape, University of Calgary
Going home: future adaptive building for aging-in-place |